Primary Examiner, Art Unit 3693

Continuation of 5 Other: The Examiner in the Final Office Action dated March 27, 2009 requested Applicant to perfect their priority. Specifically, it is unclear to the Examiner how application NZ 509524 and WO/2002/059815 relate to the instant application. Applicant indicated on April 4, 2008 that the instant application was entitled to priority. For example, Is the instant application a continuation or continuation-in-part, this affects the priority date of prior art? Establishing priority is important because it provides an earlier date and prevents the earlier disclosure being used as prior art. As it stands, it is unclear to the Examiner what Applicant's intentions are. The Applicant does not have to perfect their priority with the Office in one month, but needs to start the process and inform the Examiner what type of priority they are attempting (e.g. Continuation or CIP).
